Dear Senator Marcos Rogério,

On behalf of the Center on Transnational Business and the Law (CTBL), an Academic Center incubated at the Georgetown Law School, and of the Brazilian Institute of Legislative Law (IBDL), a think tank on the Brazilian legislative system, we are pleased to invite you, as a speaker, to participate in the second "Doing Business in Brazil Legal Symposium", an academic event hosted in Washington, DC, that is organized for the purpose of discussing legal issues of central interest to foreign investors who wish to undertake direct investments in Brazil.

The symposium is scheduled to take place between May 12 and 14, 2025, at 500 1st Street, 9th Floor (Georgetown Law School). We are expecting an audience of around 200 businesspeople, authorities, investors, and journalists, in addition to the Faculty's academic community.

We have envisioned your participation in May 12, during the afternoon, as a panelist at the Brazilian Transportation Infrastructure Panel. This panel should include 15 minutes of individual presentation for each of the panelists, followed by 15 min of Q&A under the moderation of Georgetown students and alumni.

We kindly ask that you confirm your participation by March 27, 2025. This confirmation can be addressed to our Academic Fellow Ana Sofia Monteiro Signorelli, by email, at ac2578@georgetown.edu, and to our organizing partner, Daniela Innecco, at daniela.innecco@mdalaw.adv.br. In case additional information is needed, Ana Sofia will also be available at +1 (771) 243-8073 (WhatsApp), and Daniela at +55 (61) 98180-5432.

We look forward to having you in D.C. for the spring.

Yours Sincerely,

Professor Don De Amicis
